Dear Friends of the Antrim Historical Society,

The Society continues to be very enthusiastic and busy with all our programs and projects. We really appreciate and thank our many volunteers who handle the numerous requests for historical information, arrange programs, and willingly offer their time and expertise. This coming year is full of potential for wonderful Antrim Historical Society activities.

Ongoing Projects

- A new volume of Antrim history from 1977 on;
- The House Project, compiling the history of homes in Antrim;
- The digitization of the Antrim Home News, Antrim's earliest newspaper; and
- The Stone Church project.

The Stone Church

We are anticipating the signing of papers early this fall as we receive the gift of the historical Old Stone Church in Antrim Center from the Rymes family. Thanks to all who attended the Membership Meeting in December and for the very strong interest you showed in helping us preserve this important Antrim structure. We'll keep you posted as developments proceed.

We hope you will join us for the very interesting and entertaining programs we have planned. Attendance at programs has been consistently high. Our meeting in April 2010 with "Eleanor Roosevelt" brought out 60 people for a great Sunday afternoon and Pete Martel presented a wonderful program in May on the town's relationship with the USS Antrim.

Upcoming Programs

July 4: Annual Reading of the Declaration of Independence      September 18: Apple Crisp Social at at the Bandstand, 8:30 am - 10:30 am      Home & Harvest Festival

October 3: Annual Meeting of the Society & election of officers. Neil Brown will present a program on the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New Hampshire. 3 pm, First Presbyterian Church.

We are always looking for new ideas for programs and for volunteers to help us with our ongoing projects. Two of our officers are stepping down in October and we are looking both for new officers and for committee heads. If you are interesting in serving in some capacity, please indicate on the Membership Form how you would like to help. We greatly appreciate your continued interest and support.

For returning members, now is the time to renew your membership for 2010. Individual memberships are $10 a year, $20 for a family. If you are not yet a member of the Antrim Historical Society, this is an excellent time to join. Please let your friends and acquaintances know about the Society and our programs. Donations to the Society in memory of Antrim citizens and contributions toward our operating costs are a wonderful way to help our non-profit 501(c)(3) organization.

Thanks to the Library staff for their able assistance and to all the people who spread the good word about the Antrim Historical Society. Your support as new or renewing members is our Society's strength.

Sincerely,

Liz Robertson
