Location/Address: [03] CROTCHED MOUNTAIN - FRANCESTOWN ROAD
Narrative:
While 43 was still on a separate call for service, I responded to Crotched Mountain lodge for a report of a female being treated for a head injury from falling on a ski trail.

It was reported the female was being combative to ski patrol and ambulance staff while they attempted to evaluate her health. I arrived on scene and the female did not want any medical attention. The patient had eventually calmed down and no crimes were committed. The female did not appear to be intoxicated, however, her combativeness to EMT staff was odd behavior.

I called her father and informed him of the situation. The patient signed off with the ambulance staff and she left the property with a male friend of hers. I updated 43 with the info.

Narrative:

RP states she is attempting to regain custody of her granddaughter ■, however, she refuses to leave her mother's residence. RP, who has temporary full guardianship of ■, said she allowed her to visit with her mother for a couple hours but that time has expired.

I met with the JV's mother at her residence who told me ■ was gathering her belongings to go back with her grandmother. I escorted ■ to the RP who took custody of her. I advised the RP she should request a court order before allowing her to visit to avoid from this happening again in the future.

22-166 1817 911 - Domestic Situation Services Rendered

Call Taker: Patrolman C Leland J Hunter
Location: UNKNOWN
Narrative:

■■■■■ called 911 to report while he and ■■■■■ were picking up his teenage daughter, ■, at an unknown address in Antrim, ■ was being aggressive by swearing at him and kicking him from the rear passenger seat.

Hillsborough County Dispatch took the initial call because ■ is currently with her stepmother, ■■■■■ in Peterborough. Peterborough PD responded to ■■■■■ residence to check on the JV. PPD 2404 made contact with ■ and ■■■■■ who were home and okay. ■■■■■ said she believed the incident between ■ and ■■■■■ occurred somewhere on the Hancock and Bennington town line, not in Antrim.

I spoke with ■■■■■ on the phone who advised me that he and ■■■■■ picked up ■ in Antrim around the time he called 911. ■ began recording him in the vehicle so he told her to stop and grabbed her cell phone away from her. She then became aggressive towards him and began kicking him in the vehicle while driving south on Main St.

■■■■■ said he was not injured and did not want to press charges. He would bring the incident up at her diversion program meeting tomorrow evening.

22-563 0855 Walk-In - Suspicious Circumstances Report Taken

Call Taker: Patrolman C Leland J Hunter
Location/Address: HIGHLAND AVE
Narrative:

Female resident at the PD reporting that on 3/2/22, she arrived home and discovered the Plexiglas on her front door was broken and the door was unlocked. RP believes her daughter in law had broken into her home to look for a laptop owned by the RP's son whom now lives there. No theft had occurred at the residence.

RP stated the female has been driving past her residence late at night. She also stated two nights ago, the RP's neighbor observed a female who appeared to be her daughter in law going through the RP's truck while parked in the driveway.

RP does not wish to file charges at this time, however, she plans on petitioning the court for a stalking order of protection against her and her family. I advised the RP to report any further suspicious activity to the PD when it happens that way it can be investigated.

Call Taker: Patrolman D Leland J Hunter
Location/Address: [01 01] ANTRIM POLICE DEPARTMENT - MAIN ST
Narrative:
[REDACTED] and her boyfriend called again stating she believes her son is being bribed by his father not to testify at court tomorrow. I asked her if she had any evidence of that happening and she said she just knows he is bribing him with gifts and allowing him to play video games at his house all night.

I advised [REDACTED] to call the court in the morning to ask for guidance on the civil issues between her and [REDACTED].

22-1602 2320 911 - Incoming Call Services Rendered
Call Taker: Patrolman D Leland J Hunter
Location/Address: [01 01] ANTRIM POLICE DEPARTMENT - MAIN ST
Narrative:
Male called 911 requesting an officer to respond to his residence to administer a breathalyzer test on him to prove to his roommates that he was not intoxicated. He said he actually possesses a breathalyzer and it states his BAC is 0.06. He is claiming his roommates are telling him that his drinking is causing issues in the group home.

I advised the caller I would not be responding. The caller was warned for the misuse of the 911 phone system and if he continued doing so, he would be criminally charged. I provided him the non-emergency PD phone number to use in the future for any non-emergency questions or concerns he may have for the PD.

This resident has recently called 911 for non-emergency issues such as reporting his cat missing and a lost wallet.
